Lunenburg Bound?

$698,000

If you've been dreaming of making Lunenburg your home you're not alone! But finding a great home in this popular community can be daunting with so few available. Here's your chance! 389 Lincoln sits proudly on a terraced corner lot well above the road with interesting views over historic streetscapes. There's even a glimpse of the famous harbour from the south facing sunroom & the front bedrooms upstairs. The immaculately maintained home features classic elements of Craftsman-style from the gleaming hardwood floors, to the wood panelled dining room with handsome built-in, and front entry with stained-glass sidelights. Gracious principal rooms combined with a renovated eat-in kitchen create the perfect venue for entertaining with family & friends. Upstairs find 4 bedrooms, full bath and access to a house-wide balcony that overlooks the pretty back yard. A convenient walk-up attic provides excellent storage, or potential for conversion to additional living space, and a high & dry basement w/ walkout is equally handy. And you'll be glad to know that recent energy-efficiency upgrades have made this home not just comfortable, but economical. The double corner lot is beautifully landscaped and features a fully fenced & very private back yard. A raised flagstone terrace cleverly positioned under a pair of towering spruce trees serves as a shady retreat for those hot mid-summer afternoons, and a matching garage anchors the back corner of the property and provides a little more privacy in the process. This property enjoys an excellent "walk-to-everything" location where a short & scenic stroll brings you to all the shops & services of Lunenburg's vibrant downtown & waterfront.
