What makes a house a 'HOME'...

$644,000

Feeling nostalgic? Here's a scene sure to evoke fond memories...a gracious century home on a quiet tree-lined street, a white picket fence & covered verandah, & the sound of church bells on Sundays. All reminiscent of a time when a house meant a 'Home'. Well, you don't have to go back in time to enjoy this enviable lifestyle. This lovely century home offers all of the above & more. Within the 1900 sf of living space you'll also find original features galore, incl refinished wood floors, high ceilings, a welcoming foyer w/ handsome staircase, & beautiful woodwork throughout. Generous principal rooms offer an 'almost' open concept living-dining-kitchen area. The Living Room features a propane fireplace & deep bay w/ window seat. Just off the Kitchen is a handy 3-pc bath/laundry & easy access to the back patio via the back mudroom. Also on the main floor is a true flex room which has served over the years as an office, TV room/den and main floor bedroom. Upstairs, the generous upper landing is a perfect spot for your office nook or comfy sitting area. There are 2 large Bedrooms, including the Primary w/ walk thru closet, and a pretty 4-pc family bath. Outdoor spaces are equally wonderful. A large fully fenced yard wraps around the house with a mix of fruit trees & flowering shrubs, and a patio area for the BBQ & outdoor entertaining. A large shed & paved driveway complete this tidy package. Recent improvements include insulation (ext walls & basement), complete interior repainting, granite countertops, all new appliances, new custom blinds, & more (ask for the "Recent Improvements List"). A short 3 block stroll brings you to the hustle & bustle of Mahone Bay's Main St & all the marvelous shops, services, galleries & cafes that make this charming seaside town one of Nova Scotia's most beloved gems.
